

The Do-Not-Call law in New Jersey MUST continue to be enforced! We are consumers, but this does not give telemarketers the right to wedge themselves into our personal private space. New Jerseyans have spoken; we want and demand this law to stay in effect! The notable stringency of the law in NJ is evidence that we strongly support this cause.